

January 31, 2017

Dear Friends and Supporters:

The Immigrants' Assistance Center, Inc. (IAC) is hosting a very important Spring Fundraiser on Friday, March 31, 2017 from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. The event will take place in the beautiful Harbor View Room at New Bedford Whaling Museum located at 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford, MA. Please purchase tickets for this event. We will provide an enjoyable evening, which includes Hors d' Oeuvres, cash bar, entertainment and a spectacular view of the waterfront. Ticket price is only $50.00 per person.

President Trump's Executive Orders have caused fear and insecurity in the immigrant population, resulting in the continued increase in demand for our services. We need your support to attempt to meet this need. In addition to buying tickets, we welcome any additional donations.

For over 45 years, the IAC has been at the forefront of providing a broad range of services to assist the immigrant community integrate and often attain citizenship status. The communities that we serve are primarily Portuguese, Cape Verdean and Spanish, but our client base is incredible diverse. These services include but are not limited to:

- Assist immigrant families to advocate for their Children's education
- Assist families in navigating the complex healthcare system
- Assist elders and families in accessing critical social services
- Teach English as a second language
- Guidance and support to attaining citizenship

You can purchase tickets for the event and make a tax-deductible donation through the IAC's website www.immigrantsassistancecenter.org. The IAC is a 501(c) (3) nonprofit organization.

The IAC is very please to announce it's PLATINUM SPONSORS United HealthCare Senior Care Options and Harvard Pilgrim Health Care.

Your support is greatly appreciated during this crucial period of uncertainty.

Sincerely,

Helena DaSilva Hughes
Executive Director

HDSH/ad