The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

Mr. CELLER. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, do I correctly understand that the gentleman from Pennsylvania is calling up bills which were not actually approved by the Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization of the Judiciary Committee?

Mr. GRAHAM. They were not approved by the committee as such.

Mr. CELLER. I would like to have some explanation of why they were added to the list of those which were approved. The gentleman is calling up now those which apparently were not approved by the subcommittee.

Mr. GRAHAM. There are five bills in addition to the list I have been reading from which were cleared by the other members.

Mr. CELLER. What other members does the gentleman refer to? I am a member and the gentleman from Pennsylvania is a member, but we have not been informed about these additional bills.

Mr. GRAHAM. The gentleman will recall that I was not present at that meeting. I was at a meeting of the Committee on Government Operations. These were handed to me as having been cleared with the other members.

Mr. CELLER. The gentleman may remember that we had limited ourselves to a specific number of bills.

Mr. GRAHAM. Forty bills.

Mr. CELLER. We had agreed not to go beyond that, because once you open the door to some bills and turn down those of other Members of this body we are discriminating, and that is unfair.

Mr. GRAHAM. It is the total number. With the 5 added, it will complete the 40.

Mr. CELLER. On whose suggestion were these additional bills considered? Where did they originate? How did they get on this list?

Mr. GRAHAM. By Members of the House requesting that it be done.

Mr. CELLER. I know, but it is customary to confer with Members in the minority also as to what their wishes are.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will suggest that the bills be withdrawn, temporarily, at least.

Mr. GRAHAM. Very well, Mr. Speaker.
